Index to Pittsburgh Police Hearings 1890-1900

The Pennsylvania Department, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh holds a set of microfilm covering Pittsburgh Police Hearings for 1890-1904. Staff members and volunteers compiled an index to the hearings and have given the index to WPGS for publication in the Quarterly.

The microfilm is P-738 and is titled Department of Public Safety, Bureau of Police, Police Hearings. Several of the hearings were printed in a recent Quarterly and several are included in this listing so that readers can get an idea of the type of material available. If you have an ancestor who was a Pittsburgh policeman during the late 1800s, this article should be of interest to you.

Hearing Before J. O. Brown in the case of Officer V. G. Jones on Thursday November 6, 1890: Reported on November 6th on a charge of failing to report and not making his proper rounds on complaint of Lieutenant G. J. Shaffer.

Lieutenant Shaffer's sworn statement:

About 11:15 p.m. on Tuesday I went into the Oakland Patrol Stables and found officer Jones sitting there talking politics to some gentlement. He pulled up from the box at 11:30. At 2:30 a.m. he failed to pull up. He should have pulled up from the box on Craig street at that time. I went out there and couldn't find him. I came into Oakland at 3.30 and couldn't find him. He then pulled up at the corner of Craig and Forbes street at 3.30 where he should have called up from Oakland at that time. At 4.30 a.m. he again called up from Forbes and Craig streets which made him right. I asked him, when I met him, what was the matter. He said he guessed he took a sleep.

Officer Jones sworn:

I had slept for a short time. I had been out working at the election polls all day and was very tired. I sit down during the night and fell asleep.

EO DIE: It is hereby ordered and directed that officer Jones be suspended from duty for 5 days beginning with today, November 6th, 1890.

Hearing before J. O. Brown in the case against officer Patrick Kennedy on Tuesday March 31st, 1891: Reported on March 28th by Lieutenant Holmes on a charge of neglecting to obey the orders of his Lieutenant.

Lieutenant Holmes and officer Kennedy sworn:

Lieutenant Holmes's statement:

Last Saturday morning I notified the men to stay at No. 3 Station until 8 o'clock on account of that strike out at the Cork-works. After the Roll was called this man jumped on a car and went home, leaving all the balance of the men there. As a matter of course they objected to that.

Officer Kennedy's statement:

I didn't understand the order, Chief. I would be the last man to disobey orders. On the morning before the Lieutenant told the men the same thing but let them go home shortly after and I thought it would be the same way this morning.

EO DIE: After considering the above testimony it was decided that the Lieutenant did perfectly right in reporting the officer, but that the officer should remain on duty.

Hearing before Mr. J. O. Brown, Director, Department of Public Safety, Monday, October 16th, in the charges preferred against Patrolman Joseph Quigler. Reported October 14th, 1899 by Lieutenant Charles K. Gallant, on a charge of neglect of duty.

Lieut. Gallant and Quigler sworn:

Lieut. Gallant: Last Wednesday night at 1.30 Lieut, Lalus and I visited this officer's beat and he pulled the box at 1.30 and went out Hamilton Ave., one square, crossed over, don't know name of street and went over to Kelly St., went out to Wood St., went down to Sterret St., to Frankstown Ave. k went down Frankstown Ave., to Brushton, went in to Hamilton Ave., just his round off and at 2.30 round he started the same way — did not wait to see if he finished. Also had another man walking around his beat with him.

How did you come to do that?

At 1.30 I walked my beat out Hamilton Ave., to Hale St., been trying to get in out there, thought would take trip out that way and along Kelly St., and Wood St., just as he says and on the 2 o'clock round and I saw the buggy; could not say who was in it and went clean to Park Ave., and saw the buggy stop at Brushton and (Venus)? at 2 o'clock.

We came past there. Where did you go on the 2 o'clock round?

Around Park Ave.

No you didn't. — went out Hamilton Ave.

That is what I say — Hamilton and Wood to Frankstown.

EO DIE The Board of Officers of the Bureau of Police, inquiring into the charges preferred against Patrolman Joseph Quigler would respectfully recommend that he be fined the sum of $2.50 for the above violation of the rules, the same to be applied to the benefit of the Police Pension Fund Ass'n.

Teachers' Monthly Reports Pine Hill School, Clinton District, Venango County

by Nancy Byars Romig

Pine Hill School was a little northeast of Clintonville in Venango County, not far from Kennerdell. Eva Phipps and Hattie (Harriet) Cross, two of the students, were second cousins and both are grandmothers of Nancy Romig. Nancy is familiar with most of the students and visitors in the following article.

The monthly report books contain, among other things, the names and ages of the pupils, attendance, lateness and absence, number of days attended and total attendance for the term, progress and conduct. Statistics include the number of pupils, number admitted since first of June to date, whole number in attendance during month, average attendance during term to date. Visitors are listed by name and date; there are also lists of books used, pupils without necessary books and certificates and receipts.

The branches of study at school were alphabet, spelling, reading, writing, mental arithmetic, written arithmetic, geography, grammar (and language), composition, U. S. history, physiology (and hygiene), drawing, algebra, language, geography with text, and drawing maps.

The following books were used at the school. Not every student would have his or her own book. The number of each book owned by the school is given after the title.

Osgood's American First Reader by Lucius Osgood (2)
Osgood's American Second Reader by Lucius Osgood (3)
Osgood's American Third Reader by Lucius Osgood (3)
Osgood's American Fourth Reader by Lucius Osgood (7)
Osgood's American Fifth Reader by Lucius Osgood (4)

Review

An Uncommon Passage; Traveling Through History on the Great Allegheny Passage Trail. Editor: Edward K. Muller; Photographer: Paul G. Wiegman. Pittsburgh: University of Pittsburgh Press, 2009; 256 pp; ISBN 13: 978-0-8229-4366-2; ISBN 10: 0-9229-4366-2

An Uncommon Passage is a rich historical and photographic tour of the Great Allegheny Passage Trail which has recently opened as a 152 mile scenic hiking/biking trail. The book begins with an introduction by the editor, William K. Muller, a professor of history at the University of Pittsburgh and director of the Urban Studies Program. Muller's overview of this path is followed by six essays by Western Pennsylvania scholars which serve as a guide to the trail's history and geography. This visual feast for anyone interested in the history of Western Pennsylvania relates the story of the trail that stretches through three geological provinces from The Ridge and Valley Province on its eastern end, through the Allegheny Mountains and ending with the Allegheny Plateau, specifically the Pittsburgh Plateau Province on the western end. This trail began as an Indian path and then became a military road opened by Major General Edward Braddock in 1755. It was an important corridor in England's strategy to control the Ohio River Valley. In the 1800's it gained importance as a trade route and later a railway link in America's rapid industrialization. Pittsburgh was the center for the development of the eastern railroads that connected mines and coke works to the Pittsburgh markets.

The six essays deal with various aspects of the trail's history. They include: Paul G. Wiegman's exploration of the natural history and beauty of the area; Martin West's narrative of the military history; Jennifer Ford's portrayal of western migration; Robert Gangewere's description of industrial history; Kevin Patrick's trail description that meshes history with the contemporary sights on the trail; and lastly, Paul Wiegman's essay on how communities united to build this scenic hiking/biking trail and national treasure.

The Great Allegheny Passage Trail links with the C&O Canal Towpath in Cumberland, Maryland and extends 380 miles from Pittsburgh, PA to Washington DC. The trail is now open to bikers and hikers. An Uncommon Passage is a full color guide to the Western Pennsylvania portion of this trail as well as a detailed historical assessment of the Great Allegheny Passage Trail. It will be useful to hikers and bikers of the trail as well as genealogists and students interested in the history of Western Pennsylvania

Western Pennsylvania Genealogical Society

4400 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh PA 15213-4080

Voice Mail: 412/687-6811

Website: wpgs.org

QUARTERLY: Published continuously since 1974. Contains scholarly articles, abstracts, and other materials about the 26 counties in Western Pennsylvania (map inside front cover). The articles are indexed in the Periodical Source Index (PERSI), available online through Heritage Quest, on CD-Rom and in print form in many large libraries. Back issues from Volume 25 to date can be purchased, subject to availability, for $5.00 per issue, plus $3.00 p/h. Volumes 1 through 5 are available on the members only section of our website and later volumes will continue to be added. Address correspondence to the Quarterly Editor at the Society address.

NEWSLETTER: Jots from the Point is issued bimonthly and contains news of current genealogical happenings, member activities, synopsis of WPGS meetings, and other Society news. Address correspondence to the Jots editor at the Society address.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society has published research volumes, church and cemetery locators, naturalization abstracts, newspaper abstracts, atlases, etc. Our current publications brochure is online at wpgs.org or can be ordered from the Society by request.

LIBRARY: The WPGS library is a reference library and books are not available for inter-library loan. However, our research committee is available to do limited research (within our collection) for a fee. See our website at wpgs.org to search the library catalog and for information on requesting research.

We actively solicit new books dealing with Western Pennsylvania, family histories and genealogies (about area families), handbooks, manuals on international research, etc. Many of these will be reviewed in the Quarterly. If you have older books or manuscripts to donate to the library, contact the Library Chair to see if the donations meet our current acquisition policy.

FIRST FAMILIES OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA: A lineage society open to WPGS members who can prove their descent from an ancestor living in Western Pennsylvania by 31 December 1810. Search for proven ancestors on the "Members Only" portion of our website. An application form and Rules of Evidence can be downloaded from our website or can be ordered from the Society address.
