Philatelic Genealogy: Writing Home to Western Pennsylvania During World War I

by James R. Miller

A previous article on Civil War envelopes and letters appeared in the WPGS Quarterly, Vol. 37, No. 1

About two million American soldiers, sailors, and Marines served in Europe from 1917 to 1919 with the American Expeditionary Forces (AEF) during and just after World War I.¹ Surviving postcards and envelopes document their service and help fill gaps due to the 1973 fire at the National Personnel Records Center.² This paper presents three postcards and three envelopes (one with a letter) of western Pennsylvania soldiers during their military service, with basic genealogical data on the sender and recipient. As with any source of genealogical information, old envelopes and postcards must be studied in combination with other sources before reaching any conclusion. These postcards and envelopes were purchased by the author on eBay® for $5 to $15 each.

Mr. F.W. Tower of Springboro, Pennsylvania received an envelope from “J.S. Tower, 58th Prov[isional] Co[mpany], Aug[ust] Auto[matic] Repl[acement] Draft” in 1918.[Figure 1] The enclosed letter begins “Dear Clair and Nell.” A Frank W. Tower and his sons Joseph S. and “F. Clair” are in Beaver Township (just west of Springboro) in the 1910 U.S. census.³ A Clair and Nellie Tower, husband and wife, are in Springboro in the 1920 U.S. census.⁴ The automatic replacement draft sent soldiers to units that had experienced

Joseph Tower wrote “We have got all of our over sea equipment so I am sure that we won't be here long.” He may have taken the letter across the Atlantic as the envelope was postmarked on 7 September 1918 in Brest, France (indicated by “No. 716” in the postmark), where many U.S. troop ships arrived.⁷ Joseph S. Tower was killed in action less than two months later on 1 November 1918.⁸ The envelope has a censor's stamp, applied after an officer read the letter to assure it did not indicate the soldier's exact location, anticipated troop movement, his unit's morale, or other information that could be useful to the German army if the envelope fell into their hands during wartime.⁹ The envelope was provided by the YMCA (Young Men's

Miss Eleanor Matthews of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania received a postcard written on 21 December 1918 in Mayen, Germany. [Figure 2] The postcard begins "Dear Baby Sister" and is signed "Your Brother, Al." A John J., William A., and "Elanor" Matthews, father, son, and daughter, are in Pittsburgh in the 1910 U.S. census.¹² A John J. Matthews is in the 1918 Pittsburgh directory at the street address written on the postcard.¹³ William A. Matthews is shown as William Alfred Matthews on his 1917 Selective Service registration, also at the same street address.¹⁴

Mrs. J.J. Hawthorne of Scottsdale, Pennsylvania received an envelope from "Wm. A. Hawthorne, 12th Aero Squadron" in March 1919. [Figure 3] A Mary J. (Mrs. John J.) Hawthorne and her son William A. are in Scottsdale in the 1920 U.S. census at the street address written on the envelope.¹⁷ The envelope, provided by the YMCA, was mailed from "Coblence," Germany (shown in the return address and indicated by "No. 927" in the postmark).¹⁸ This envelope has a cancel's stamp and signature. The 12th Aero Squadron took part in the Rhineland occupation.¹⁹

Spencer M. Free, M.D. of DuBois, Pennsylvania received an envelope from "Sgt [Sergeant] Spencer M. Free Jr." in January 1919. [Figure 4] A Spencer M. Free, physician, and his son Spencer M., Jr. are in DuBois in the 1920 U.S. census at the street address written on the envelope.²⁰ Spencer M. Free, Jr. served with the "U.S. Army Ambulance Service with the Italian Army," which provided care to Italian soldiers in Italy during World War I.²¹ This envelope has a cancel's stamp, "Soldier's Mail," and a military postmark. The military unit details provided by this envelope are not available from Spencer M. Free's veteran's burial record.²²

An unmailed real photo postcard (RPPC) is labeled "Pvt. [Private] Harry M. Curren, 144 Ambulance Co., 111 Sanitary Train, A.P.O. [Army Post Office] 796" and "Ford City, Pa." [Figures 5A and 5B] RPPCs were produced singly or in limited quantities by amateur and local commercial photographers and were especially popular 1910-1920.²³ A Harry M. Curren of Ford City registered with Selective Service in 1917, is in Ford City in the 1920 census, and is shown in the 1930 census as a World War I veteran.²⁴ A.P.O. 796 corresponds to the 36th Division, which included his sanitary train and ambulance company.²⁵ This postcard, presumably showing Harry M. Curren in uniform, is not postmarked and may have been sent home inside an envelope. Because of their photographs, RPPCs are exceptional sources of family history information.

Prior to overseas military service, U.S. soldiers trained in this country. Mrs. Ellis Louk of Bradford, Pennsylvania received a postcard from Augusta, Georgia in September 1917. [Figure 6] The postcard text begins "Hellow father" and is signed Lewis Louk. An Ellis Louk and his son Lewis are in Bradford in the 1920 U.S. census.²⁶ The picture on the front of the postcard [not shown] shows soldiers exercising. Lewis Louk may have written this postcard at Camp Hancock, a World War I training site just outside Augusta.²⁷ He served with the 112th Infantry and returned to Bradford after the war.²⁸ The postcard has a stamp, as it was not mailed from overseas.

This article shows how old postcards and envelopes document and let us glimpse our ancestor's wartime experience. The locations and the military unit names and numbers written on these postcards and envelopes may help in finding additional information on their military service. Many more envelope and postcard photographs involving western Pennsylvania residents are available. Anyone interested in philatelic genealogy and in adding new envelope and postcard photographs to Philgen.org is encouraged to contact the author.²⁹

adapted from church centennial history¹

Old Salem Church was organized in the wilderness, on the banks of the Shenango River, near the site of Greenville, Pennsylvania, in the fall of 1800. When the western survey was thrown open for settlement in 1792, many of the Scotch-Irish people living in the Cumberland Valley and in the older parts of Westmoreland County saw an opportunity for cheap land and they at once started to occupy it.

The first settlers—Christys, Williamsons, Beattys, Beans, Stinsons, and others—came into the region about 1796 to 1798. Shortly thereafter, preaching services were held by two Presbyterian missionaries, Tait and Stockton. Services supposedly took place on the banks of the Shenango River and were subsequently transferred to a tent. The first building was a log structure with crevices chinked with mud, a clapboard roof, and puncheon seats. The church was disbanded in 1897, the congregation dissolved and letters of dismissal granted to the members.

Website: wpgs.org

QUARTERLY: Published continuously since 1974. Contains scholarly articles, abstracts, and other materials about the 26 counties in Western Pennsylvania (map inside front cover). The articles are indexed in the Periodical Source Index (PERSI), available online through Heritage Quest, on CD-Rom and in print form in many large libraries. Back issues from Volume 25 to date can be purchased, subject to availability, for $5.00 per issue, plus $3.00 p/h. Volumes 1 through 5 are available on the members only section of our website and later volumes will continue to be added. Address correspondence to the Quarterly Editor at the Society address.

NEWSLETTER: Jots from the Point is issued bimonthly and contains news of current genealogical happenings, member activities, synopsis of WPGS meetings, and other Society news. Address correspondence to the Jots editor at the Society address.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society has published research volumes, church and cemetery locators, naturalization abstracts, newspaper abstracts, atlases, etc. Our current publications brochure is online at wpgs.org or can be ordered from the Society by request.

LIBRARY: The WPGS library is a reference library and books are not available for inter-library loan. However, our research committee is available to do limited research (within our collection) for a fee. See our website at wpgs.org to search the library catalog and for information on requesting research.

We actively solicit new books dealing with Western Pennsylvania, family histories and genealogies (about area families), handbooks, manuals on international research, etc. Many of these will be reviewed in the Quarterly. If you have older books or manuscripts to donate to the library, contact the Library Chair to see if the donations meet our current acquisition policy.

FIRST FAMILIES OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA: A lineage society open to WPGS members who can prove their descent from an ancestor living in Western Pennsylvania by 31 December 1810. Search for proven ancestors on the "Members Only" portion of our website. An application form and Rules of Evidence can be downloaded from our website or can be ordered from the Society address.
